Leave Charleston Home As Stow-aways; Land in Philadelphia Almost Starved.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—Munching tallow candles to satisfy the cravings of hunger, three Southern boys who recently arrived here as stow-aways from Charleston, S. C., were picked up by a policeman early today and later sent to the house of correction.

They gave their names as John N. Dickson, sixteen years old; James Wilson, sixteen, and Thomas Martin, seventeen. They arrived here on a steamer last Friday.

GOES TO RESCUE, WILL LOSE SHIP

Captain Runs Schooner on Rocks in Effort to Aid Supposed Burning Craft.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—Sighting what he thought to be a ship afire, Capt. Chester Lancaster went to the rescue with the steam schooner R. D. Inman. The blaze, however, was a fire in buildings on the shore and the Inman struck on Bolinas Point, twenty-five miles north of this city. All of the men have been taken off by the life-savers, but the vessel is breaking up.

She sailed from this port Saturday night with a big cargo of general merchandise, which will be lost.

Sponges and Wash Cloths.

Sponges have almost been discarded from the modern bathroom on account of the difficulty of keeping them in a sanitary condition. When they are used one should not be satisfied with giving them an occasional washing even in warm water, but they should be boiled once a week in water to which has been added a teaspoonful of Gold Dust washing powder and rinsed through several clear warm waters. Wash cloths should also be boiled in Gold Dust suds and thoroughly rinsed, sunned and ironed. Those of thin linen crash are more desirable than heavy ones.
